

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram,
October 5, 1944.

C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

partition. It is my firm belief that the present opportunity for a settlement should not be lost by the Muslims who cannot live for ever on a mere controversy, but must secure a settlement on reasonable terms.

The demand made in the Lahore resolution has found its proper and well-defined shape and substance in the formula presented to Mr Jinnah. The Muslim community as well as all others interested in the freedom and peaceful progress of India should study it and the documents brought together in this book.

Sevagram, C. RAJAGOPALACHARI.
October 5, 1944.

